WELLAND

The Safe Communities flag will be flying outside Welland Civic Centre next week as part of Safe Communities Canada Day observances.

Welland was designated a Safe Community in February 2005 – Niagara's first.

City councillors Tuesday night declared Wednesday, Oct. 3 Safe Communities Day in the city, as requested by the Welland Safe Community Partnership, which works toward implementation of programs and services focused on the safety of residents, visitors, schools and workplaces.

The partnership is chaired by Bill Auchterlonie.
